

Five Wishes

America's Most Popular Living Will

Completing Five Wishes is a gift to your family, friends, and your doctor, because it keeps them out of the difficult position of having to guess what kind of services and treatment you want and don't want in case you can't speak for yourself.

This program helps creating a Living Will that:

- Is written in everyday language, no medical or legal jargon
- Helps people express their wishes that matter most; the personal and spiritual, in addition to the medical and legal
- Is a blueprint to help start and guide family conversation about care in times of serious illness
